FOREWORD

May this brief record of school life reflect that one purpose which Marion College has ever in view—that of "carrying on"—and revive pleasant memories of friendships and associations of 1933-34.

DEDICATION

TO

SIEBERT H. KERSHNER

Whom the students of Marion College have learned to love as friend, counselor, and Professor, and without whose sincere cooperation and advice the 1934 Marionette would have been an impossibility.

SENIORS' SECRET AMBITIONS

After considerable discreet questioning, the following facts have been secured:

''Gene'' Kierstead, our doughty President, reveals the fact that he desires, for one thing, to be left alone by the fair sex——''Pore Gene''——Then, too, Gene entertains the secret desire to some day be President of the A. S. M. (The Association of Superannuated Ministers).

''Bob'' Earle says that he hopes to some day pose for the Quaker, on Quick Quaker Oats.

From very authentic sources comes the news that Eileen Macy has aspriations of being a housewife. Maybe she'll invite us over for a piece of cherry pie sometime, eh?

Long, lanky, sleepy, dreamy Eber Hobson, when questioned about his secret ambition, named several, such as teaching music in the University of Alabama, running a ''hot dog'' stand in the Chicago loop, etc. Finally, however, after many questions had been answered he said that he hoped to be a radio ''crooner.''

The only desire found hidden in Marvin Jones' thoughts is that he might be ''just Elmer.''

That Buckeye girl, Ruth Taylor, wishes to become a second Paderewski, or is it Stokowsy, whichever, but at any rate she aspires to be a world-renowned pianist.

Paul Bailey says he plans to be a great scientist, and is going to form a theory that will put Einstein's ''Theory of Relativity'' in the shade.

We have often wondered what thoughts were hidden in the quiet personality of Mary Frances Shambaugh. But say, folks,—you should hear what her ambition is—can you guess? She wants to write a book entitled ''Etiquette for College Seniors.''

N. Melvin Ault, the very name sounds austere. As near as we can tell ''Nolie'' desires to take the place of Will Rogers and ''carry on'' for the dear old U. S. A.

Beulah Jones hasn't been the same since the breaking up of the ''Old Maids Club.'' She still has ambitions of organizing and becoming President of a countrywide organization to be known as ''The Old Maid's Club of America, Ltd.''

Harold Porter intends to carve a niche for himself in the Hall of Fame as the second Barney Oldfield, the great auto racer. That's a nice speedy, modern ambition.

Helen Tomlinson, known to many as ''Tommy'', expresses the desire of being the first American woman to go over Niagara Falls in a barrel.

Here's a shocking one—Marvin Michaelson has the ambition, hidden away in the innermost part of his heart, of sometime being known as ''Big Bad Mike, Public Enemy Number one of Chicago.''

Marjorie Farley reveals a deepseated desire to be a dictator—no, not of the U. S.—just of her own little ''nest.''

Salesman Sam? Well not quite. But Vernon Yousey does hope to someday sell real estate on the Moon.

Marie Wilson thinks that a ''home'' in the Hills of North Carolina would be nice. She wants to spend her life in one grand song.

Joseph Leach, good old Bishop—Joe thinks he would like to be another ''Billy'' Sunday or ''Bud'' Robinson.

Kay Mayne hopes to rival Kate Smith not in size, but in popularity.

Lester Brunner has one ambition and that is that someday he will know Sight Singing so well that he can teach some poor ''ignoramus'' the essentials.

Lucile Philips is surely doomed to be a historian. Perhaps she can do the present administration full justice in a text book for future students of American History.

Harold Wiswell has a very (?) secret ambition of some day marrying and settling down. ''Oh, I didn't know that!'' Wonder who the lucky girl might be?

Glwadys Davies has always felt so sorry for children that she hopes to establish an orphanage for children of disabled mathematicians.

Franklin Chant has a personal ambition toward an M. D.—but don't tell Prof. Young.

WHAT vision the founders of Marion College had when the college was first organized, to make as a distinct part of the institution the Divinity School. How essential it is for the minister or missionary to be as well trained as the people with whom he labors; and how important it is that this education be gained in a school of sound doctrine.

Since 1922 the Divinity School has offered three distinct courses as a part of its curriculum: courses leading to Bible School graduation, the Theological College Course, and the Graduate Course leading to a Master of Arts or a B. D. degree. Most students are registered in the Theological College Course or in the Graduate Course.

Not alone does this department serve the Theological students, for many of those enrolled in the A. B. and B. S. courses also take work in the Divinity School.

Together with the college students, members of the Divinity School have gained considerable practical experience throughout the year. Services have been held at the Emily Flinn Home, the Jail, the County Infirmary, the Delta Electric Factory, and Gospel Team work has been carried on in a number of churches.

The work of this department cannot be estimated. But it is certain that it holds a vital place in not only the Wesleyan denomination but the other sister churches as well.

THE ACADEMY

THE Marion College Academy was organized in 1921, and is ending its last year as a part of the institution. Those who have graduated from the academy feel that they were well fitted for college in a wholesome, Christian environment. Although in these last few years, the number of students has been few, their good times have been many, and the friendships formed here will indeed be long remembered. It is with high ambition and expectations that the M. C. A. Seniors look forward to continuing their educational activities in the college.

SNAPPY RHYMES—by Bill Rigsbee

Yoo-hoo! Peek-a-boo!

Five little girls to Ohio went
My O My—the money they spent!

If we all a girl-friend had
Maybe our hair wouldn't look so bad.

Do you kno what!
"Four Nurtzes"

Tush! Tush!
The girls are giving Clyde a rush.

Brother Gene likes to be seen.

He's in the window, she's down below
Mrs. Ayers heard him calling:—
"Oh Oh Oh."

Here's a picture of Bishop Leach
Another good brother going to preach.

Practicing a serenade—spose it will Give the girls a great big thrill?

Heave Ho, Resor! Try your best!
She'll leave you like all the rest!

Little black mustache and a goatee.
Funniest thing you ever did see!

Terrible Tough—Clyde again!

Rooms for Rent—nobody home upstairs.

Bernice Ellingwood and Mrs. Ayers
They've been through some terrible scares!

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

STUDENT CONFERENCE OFFICERS

Sterl Phinney, Marie Wilson, Eugene Kierstead,
Marvin Michealson, Helen Tomlinson, Leo Corliss, Amy Jackson

THE Student Conference was organized several years ago for the promotion of holiness, and to take charge of all religious activities of the student body, including those confined to the campus and those of a missionary character in the city. On Tuesday evening is held the Student Conference service with Sterl Phinney, president of the organization, presiding. To members of the Student Conference four fields of missionary activity are afforded. The weekly services at the jail were conducted by Marvin Michaelson and the Friday noon factory services were in charge of Eugene Kierstead. The services each month at the County Infirmary were supervised by Marie Wilson and those at the Emily Flinn Home by Leo Corliss. Helen Tomlinson has been leading the noonday prayer meetings and Amy Jackson has conducted the devotional period in the dining hall.

John Hunter
President of the Y. M. W. B.

The Young Missionary Workers' Band of Marion College purposes to promote the interest of missions among the students by encouraging individual and collective prayer and by keeping them informed as to the specific needs of the various fields and missionaries. The Band has also been taking the responsibility of aiding in the support of Rev. F. R. Birch, Sierra Leone, West Africa.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

Top Row—Huffman, Tennell, R. Jones, Norman, Resor.
Second Row—R. Tippey, Hobson, Connor, Phinney.
Bottom Row—Young, Prof. H. Baker, Ebersole.

SOON after registration in the fall the Men's Glee Club, under the direction of Prof. Baker, is organized for the purpose of representing the school at various functions. This organization is prepared to give programs in churches, high schools, before clubs and other groups when arrangements can be made. The selection of members is made on a competitive basis. The club provides splendid training and an opportunity for travel. With very little exception the programs are made up entirely of gospel songs of the type suitable for extensive use.

WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB

Top Row—Mayne, Hansen, Shank, Haldy, Williams, Stone, Visher.
Bottom Row—Farley, Piehl, Mrs. Parker, Tescher, Rauch.

THE Women's Glee Club, a comparatively new organization, is making a name for itself. In the two years it has been organized, under the direction of Mrs. Gretchen Thomas Parker, the club has held a position of minor importance in the music department. Slowly it is coming to the front as an excellent representative of the college. The girls have sung several times at the First Methodist Church, they appeared at the Friends church in Kokomo, they sang over the radio at station WOWO, Fort Wayne, besides presenting several programs in chapel.

The Glee Club provides one hour a week of relaxation, enjoyment and good fun. The girls enjoy singing; they are more than enthusiastic over new music, places to go and things to do. Mrs. Parker, of course, is the instigator of much of that enjoyment, for she always plans and works and plays with the girls, making them feel that she is interested in them. Above all she is patient.

The club is becoming quite well-known for its fine singing and good spirit, for everything is done for Marion College.

MARION COLLEGE COMMUNITY CHORUS

FOR the past few years the Marion College Community Chorus, under the direction of Professor Herman Baker, has had a remarkable influence in the gradual welding of a link between Marion College and the community of which the college is a part.

Friends of Marion College have come from all parts of the city of Marion, from the adjacent towns of Jonesboro, Gas City, and from the surrounding rurality, to join the chorus. They have been faithful attendants at the rehearsals, which have become pleasant occasions for the meeting of congenial acquaintances. This year, through friendly cooperation, a chorus of about one hundred voices was prepared to sing at the Christmas season the cantata "Bethlehem" by Maunder. This number was given first, according to custom, at the U. S. Veterans' Hospital, one of the largest institutions of its kind, and located at Marion, Ind. Following tradition the chorus sang at the College Chapel, and finally to a large audience in the First Methodist Church of Marion.

The organization reached the highest pinnacle of membership when the Easter cantata, "Victory Divine" by Marks was given by one hundred twenty singers. At this time the Marion College Community Chorus sang, by special request, in the First Methodist Church of Jonesboro, and the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Fairmount, Indiana. The customary programs at the United States Veterans' Hospital, and Marion College, were followed by the final presentation at the First Methodist Church of Marion. In the opinion of audiences who have heard this group of singers, each year brings a finer achievement, sets a new, high record.

The soloists, all of whom have been with the chorus for several seasons, are known and appreciated wherever they have been heard. Kathryn Mayne and Ruth Taylor, Sopranos; Ray Norman, Tenor; Paul William Rigsbee and Professor Ebner, Bass; sang a number of unusually beautiful parts in the year's musical presentations.

Plans for the continuous growth of the Marion College Community Chorus are under consideration by Professor Herman Baker, Dean of the Marion College School of Music. The country-wide interest which has been increasing steadily since the organization of the chorus has resulted in many invitations to communities outside of Marion, only two of which could be accepted this year. It is expected that the group will be even larger next year.

MARION COLLEGE MUSIC-LECTURE COURSE

HIGGINS ENTERTAINERS, Reader and Tenor

The first number of the season was presented on October 27 by Charles D. Higgins, reader, and Charles D. Higgins, Jr., tenor, of Dayton, Ohio. The program was made up of readings from Paul Lawrence Dunbar and James Whitcomb Riley, with musical numbers of unusual variety, including some negro spiriutals.

STANLEY-HOSKINS ELECTRICAL DEMONSTRATIONS

On the evening of January 9, Professor Forrester C. Stanley, and Mr. Lewis Hoskins of Oskaloosa, Iowa, gave an educational and interesting program of electrical demonstrations, as the second number of the Music-Lecture Course. The greater number of machines used in their demonstrations are of their own perfection as a result of their specialization in this field.

DR. J. A. HUFFMAN, Lecturer

The third number of the Music-Lecture course was given by Dr. J. A. Huffman, on February 21. The illustrated lecture was of first-hand information about Syria, Egypt, and Palestine, with pictures taken by Dr. Huffman himself. The program was educational as well as interesting.

BOMAR CRAMER, Pianist

Bomar Cramer, pianist, of Arthur Jordan Conservatory of Music at Indianapolis, appeared in a concert on May 2, as the fourth and last number of the season. The artist was formerly instructor in Piano at Marion College and has been professor at the Conservatory for the past few years. The concert included productions from famous composers of the classical school and high-class compositions from more modern musicians.

THE MARIONETTE CONTEST

The Marionette staff sponsored, as has been the custom, the sale of annuals through an inter-literary-society contest during the first term of the school year, awarding a prize to the winning society, to the student selling the largest number of books, and to the ones in each society selling the largest number of books. This year the Eurekans outsold the Amphics 105-75, the percentage being 1.69 to 1.15. The Eurekans were presented with a portrait of President W. F. McConn. Paul Bailey, Amphic, sold the most Marionettes in the college, and Mary Graham, Eurekan, sold the most in her society.

Cheer! Cheer! For Marion College

(Marion College Song)

1. Cheer! Cheer! for Mar - ion Col - lege, School e'er the best;
2. Cheer! Cheer! for Al - ma Ma - ter, School of our choice,
3. Cheer! Cheer! for our dear Mar - ion, School that we love;

Thy fame is ris - ing, o - ver all the rest;
Al - ways we'll praise thee with u - nit - ed voice;
Long may thou pros - per un - der God a - bove;

None can ev - er pass us, what - e'er they do—
Bear - ing e'er thy col - ors, we're al - ways true—
Grow - ing ev - er great - er the long years through—

Three cheers for Mar - ion, we're here for you.
Three cheers for Mar - ion, we're here for you.
Three cheers for Mar - ion, we're here for you.

DOWN ON THE OLD TRIANGLE.

GLADYS HALL, '27

1. In the heart of Hoosier-land There's a place we think it's grand, There's a spot which we are proud to call our own There a Tri-an-gle is found, Where our hearts are firmly bound;
2. Oh, the games we like to play, At the clos-ing of the day, In the par-lor of our dear old Teter Hall; Oh, the songs we like to sing Till we make the chapel ring,
3. Oh, we some-times met our doom In the Math-e-mat-ics' room; And we sometimes feel as tho' we had the blues; But we'll buckle in and grin, Tho our pocket books be thin,

Refrain.

And a loyal band of stu-dents tried and true.
And the fel-low-ship of friends the best of all. Down on the Old Tri - an - gle,
For we're hap-py in the ups and downs of life.

Oh, Pals! the times we've had, Down on the Old Tri-an-gle School never seemed so bad;

An' when out in life With it's toil and strife, We'll re-mem-ber our dear Old Tri-an-gle.

REVIEW OF ORGANIZATIONS

THE EUREKA LITERARY CLUB at the first open program of the school year disclosed its key to success: Friendship. On Rush Day the society enlarged its membership through friendly invitations to enjoy in a year of entertainment and culture. By enthusiastic cooperation the club won the Marionette contest, and this same spirit brought victory to the Girls' Basket Ball team. Each member of the club has profited by actual experience in filling offices and appearing on programs.

THE AMPHICTYON LITERARY SOCIETY firmly believes in a well rounded character; therefore, it tries to develop members along literary lines as well as to cultivate an appreciation of all fine arts. The society does not boast of highly accomplished talent, for the group feels that a greater mission is the development of the undeveloped. The Amphics are becoming a vital factor in the life of the College. As we look into the future we see them as a society unsurpassed along musical and literary lines.

"To promote interest in art, to deepen the appreciation of the beautiful, to develop artistic talent"—such are the ideals of the LES BEAUX ARTS CLUB. The group assists in sponsoring art exhibits in the city thus affording the members a splendid opportunity to study the compositions of well-known artists. The members feel that they have profited from this year's work and hope that the influence of their accomplishments will be shown through the continuance of the work in the future.

THE SCIENCE CLUB was organized as an outgrowth of the old Chemistry Club, which has been inactive for the past few years, joined with the Biological Research Club, organized only last year for Pre-Medics, and extended this year to include all Biology Majors. In an endeavor to promote closer correlation between the Departments of Mathematics, Biology, and the Physical Sciences, and to create a wider interest in the Science courses of the College, the new Club was formed as three divisions, separate in individual interests, yet working as a unit.

THE BUCKEYE CLUB was organized in 1924 for the purpose of furthering the interests of Marion College in Ohio. Its members have participated in all phases of student life; chapel programs have been given at various times; frequent parties have aroused added interest in the club and succeeded in more closely uniting Ohio students on the campus.

The Mason-Dixon Line may divide sections of the country, but it unites and intensifies interests as THE DIXIE CLUB, composed of all southern students and faculty members, purposes to assist in maintaining high standards of scholarship and spirituality, to promote the interest of the College in the Southland, and to create a spirit of fellowship and interest among the Southern students.

THE GIRLS' HIKING CLUB is one of the oldest organizations on the campus, and its interests are centered on physical development by means of long hikes. For the first year of hiking, after the hiker has completed a distance of 100 miles, a red and black "M" is given; at the completion of a second year of hiking, and with 125 miles to their credit, members receive a winged show emblem; at the end of the third year, and the completion of 150 miles of hiking, they are presented with a bar. This year two girls, Beulah Jones, and Mary Linder, have completed their fourth year as hikers, with a total distance of 175 miles for the year. They will each receive a sweater, a reward which has never before been captured.

THE COUNCIL OF CHEERFUL COMRADES is made up of all women residing in the dormitory. As a promoter of social affairs, the C. C. C.'s are the most active organization on the campus, sponsoring an annual Christmas Dinner, with letters to Santa Claus 'n' ev'rything, a general big Birthday Party, when all celebrate their birthdays on the same day, and an Easter Breakfast, the main feature of which is usually an impressive candle-lighting service. The dormitory residents feel that through an organization such as this, good feeling and closer companionship is fostered among the girls and active participation in outside functions is more possible.

FROM HERE

AND THERE

AS THINGS GO

September 11—Registration, with all the usual hustle and bustle, began today. Students hail all the way from New Jersey to Japan. No casualties reported from the rush.

September 15—Student-Faculty reception held at Teter Hall. Nice people—nice talks—nice eats. This date also marked formal declaration of war between several ladies for the favor of the School's Best Bets—Clyde Martin and Ben Sheets. May the best (WO)man win.

September 19—Student conference organized with Sterl Phinney at the helm.

September 20—Eurekans give open program entitled Friendship. Mr. James DeWeerd expounded at great length, featuring a psychomotor manifestation of exuberance.

September 26—The Y. M. W. B. got under way today, their destinies to be guided by John Hunter.

September 27—The Amphictyons gave their first open program, calling it "The Book-Shelf." Though we have long suspected the same, who would have thought the Amphics would admit the fact? Well—anyway——!

September 29—Junior-Frosh picnic. Hamburgers, marshmallows, pickles; baseball games and moonlight strolls. Ever notice how even glossy green colors soften while meandering midst leafy lanes——'neath the mellow ministerings of Luna?

October 10—Rush day for the literary societies. Heaven help a neophyte on a day like this! Even Horace got excited and cut loose with the cutest capers!

October 11—Science club forms, choosing Prof. Kershner, Eileen Macy and Harold Porter to formulate the club's constitution. That trio would be hard on any constitution. Macy me!

October 13—Friday, and Senior Sneak Day. Well, better, I suppose, be a sneaking senior than no senior at all.

October 18—Test days—midnight oil—flunking never pays—well, then toil! Eurekans received new members with a party. De Wierdness of it!

October 19—Contest between societies started on Marionette sales. Everything went smoothly except for a short time when Marian Tescher refused to play in our yard unless she could be on the same team with Ben Sheets. Was it the Greeks who "had a name for it?" Students had the opportunity to see many beautiful pictures of the West, taken by Dr. Tint. Dr. Tint is a retired physician who has taken up photography as a hobby, and all who saw his pictures have added their voices to the national claim that he has made a success of his avocation. Seniors wore their new jackets for the first time today, and some of the ladies were surely symphonies in blue.

October 20—Harvest Day. Old friends greet—new friends meet—and we all eat. And oh, yes! Come over and see me some time!

October 21—The Buckeye Club partakes of a wild orgy consisting mostly of marshmallows, apples and plently of Adam's Ale. Well—everybody to his own idea—.

October 26—Men's Glee Club organized. They do say that a man's surplus energy must be utilized one way or another, so I suppose that for some, singing will do the trick!

October 27—First number of the Music-Lecture course. The Higgins Entertainers, (colored) consisting of Charles D. Higgins, reader, Charles L. Higgins, tenor, and Miss Ruth Howard, accompanist, gave a varied and delightful program this evening. The Dixie Club gave a chapel program today. About the only thing that the rest of us were sure of when the program was over was that we now know the answer to Why are Southerners lazy when The Bear Comes Over the Mountain?

October 28—Another group of nomads take a week-end and go to the World's Fair. What a weak-end that turned out to be!

November 2—Dr. J. C. Vaughn gives a very interesting talk in chapel. The fall revival started tonight with Rev. Edward Smithee conducting.

November 9—Marionette sales contest ended today, with honors going to the Eurekans, who sold an average of 1.69 books per person. Wonder if that means our efforts are to be rewarded with a book and a half?

November 17—Student conference officers go as delegates to the sixteenth annual convention of the Young People's Gospel League, which was held at Taylor University.

November 22—Eurekan and Amphictyon joint program. This was a studio program, and all members greatly enjoyed the broadcast.

November 24—Annual C. C. C. birthday dinner. True to the M. C. tradition, everyone had plenty to eat and lots of fun.

November 29—Fall term ends. Those who have tried to bluff their way through the term are burning the midnight oil, cramming for all they are worth, because you can't sham your way through those exams. Well—can you?

November 30—No school, but Bob Earl got married today, so congratulations are in order.

December 4—Thanksgiving Day is over, and what a never-to-be-forgotten day it turned out to to be. Registration day opens, with several new courses offered.

December 10—Men's Glee Club sings at Mt. Etna. I don't dare to say how good they were, because people would say that I was bragging. But, anyway—they'll do!

December 13—Chorus presents cantata at college chapel. A real treat to all music-lovers. Congratulations, Prof. Baker.

December 15—Beulah Jones, assisted by the Eurekan Quartette, gives a fine speech recital. Miss Shugart has every reason to be proud of the members of her speech department!

December 17—Marion College Chorus presents "Bethlehem" at the First M. E. Church, Marion, December 18—Annual Christmas Dinner at Teter Hall. Everything that anyone could want, down to autographed place-cards!

December 20—Christmas vacation starts—oh—oh!

January 3—Back to the old grind—are we getting sharp? Hey—how are we doing? Literary societies start the new year by presenting closed programs.

January 10—Prof. Young gives a fine talk to the student body in chapel.

January 16—Marionette contest awards given. Eurekans won in total sales, but Paul Bailey of the Amphics won the individual sales prize.

January 25—Memorial program for Prof. A. Jones. A fine program to the memory of a fine man.

January 28—Men's glee club sings at Second Friends Church, Marion.

February 4—Girl's Glee Club gives first out of town program at Kokomo.

February 15—Girl's Trio broadcasts over WOWO at Fort Wayne.

February 28—Amphictyon-Eurekan joint program. "Friends for a day!" The Harmony Four Quartette, procured through the efforts of Wm. Howard Weaver, certainly lived up to their name!

March 9—The less said about the last nine days, the better. Exams are over, the term is over—with various reactions among the students. Some seem satisfied, some seem sad (what is this—she sells sea-shells?) Skip it!

March 12—Registration. Several new faces, and a few missing. And are those fifteen students who got jobs with the Federal Relief happy, or just—happy?

March 18—Marion College Chorus gives cantata, "Victory Divine" at Fairmount. Prof Baker is to be congratulated on the fine showing made by this group.

March 23—College on the air at WOWO.

March 28—Eurekans may not be squirrely, but they did fly high tonight in their closed program. Program? Entitled Birds. The Amphic program consisted of a series of talks on Easter.

April 11—Eurekans present open program. All about the States.

April 15—Men's Glee Club makes an unexpected trip to Lima, Ohio, where Reverend John Huffman is holding a revival.

April 16—Spring revival starts, with Reverend Paul S. Rees conducting.

April 22—Spring revival ends.

April 30—Amphics present open program.

May 1—Tennis, spring fever, and what-have-you from now on!

May 18—Junior-Senior Banquet. Poor underclassmen.

May 25—Recital by Music Department.

May 30—We did get a Spring Vacation!

June 3—Baccalaureate Sunday.

June 1-4—Big Homecoming for Alumni. Aren't we glad the parlor is redecorated so gorgeously??

June 5—Commencement—and the end. Or is it the beginning?
